

Raleigh, N. C., Wednesday, August 18th, 1869.

Senator Hendricks is stumping in California. Unhappy California!

A good place for gamblers to go to-the Faroe Islands.

Kentucky has a woman 119 years old. What a comfort she must be to her grand-

Anna Dickinson has declared that she will not marry a Chinaman .- Exchange. This declaration will greatly relieve the minds of the Celestials.

An Iowa distillery has been turned into a cotton mill: It is nt the first distillery that spit cotton.—N. Y. Democrat.

It isn't much of a change after all. Its only changing a rum-mill to a gin-mill.

Harriet Beecher Stowe, with two daughters, is summering at the Seaside House in Westport,

That is, she and her daughters are stowed

There are not more than six men in both Houses of Congress who are genuine orators.

It would be the best thing imaginable for the country if there wasn't one.

Another musical prodigy-a boy in Pennsylvania of six who does not know the alphabet, but plays the violin by note.

That is, he likes to receive notes better than letters. Lots of boys in the same fix.

The Kentucky sleeping girl, atter a nap of fourteen years, is dead .- Exchang

Can't tell about that so easily. She may be only enjoying a dead sleep for another fourteen years.

Monogram buttons for gentlemen are among the latest novelties. They are worn on coats and vests.—New Crieans Times.

Worn on coats and vests! Of course they are. You would'nt have them worn on-on - on would you?

Maria Gass has been offered $5000 a month to sing in New York.—Exchange.

Here is a fine chance for the Sentinel Talent of its kind seems to be appreciated in New York. We certify that it's a heap gassier than Gass.

One grain of wheat planted in the Boise Valley, Idaho, has produced 126 stalks, with thirty grains on each .- Exchange.

We believe the above to be a big lie, and don't believe that among all these grains there is a "grain of truth."

The Philadelphia Press propounds the tollowing conundrum .

Senter says emphatically that in Tennesse equal civil and political rights shall be guaranteed to all without reference to race or color. Will those who claim his election as a Democratie victory, please accept the situation?

The Washington Chronicle avers that Gen. Rosechans' excuse for not accepting the Democratic nomination as Governor of Ohio -viz: that he wanted to pay his debtsis generally understood as a genteel protest against the repudiation policy of the Democratic leaders.

We are indebted to the North Carolinian for the following:

THE RALEIGH STANDARD .- Among our most welcome exchanges is the State organ from Raleigh-the STANDARD. It is conducted with life. energy, and spirit. Let it have a wide cir-

A New York clergyman has been found in a concert saloon. That is not the worst place he will be found in if he continues on .- New York

No, if he continues upon his downward path he might at length get so low as to bring up in the Democrat office. In which case he'd be hopelessly lost.

The New York World claims the election in Tennessee as a Democratic triumph! The World got its face slapped by the Virginia papers for making the same claim concerning the election in that State. The World is the great Democratic Pauper. It begs for the crumbs which fall from "Brick" Pomeroy's table. The Democrats treat it just as any other cur is treated and kick it from before them. Therefore it is useless to expect that a journal, so degraded, can be put to shame when its lies are exposed. But it knows its claim is false. The Richmond Whig, the leading paper of Virginia, once told the World to let it alone, that the WALKER party wished nothing to do with it. It declared that the WALKER men were true Republicans. It now makes the same declaration concerning the SENTER party in Tennessee, who proclaimed the same principles as did the WALKER party. There are sundry Democratic papers in this State who have been misrepresenting the SENTER party who will do well to attend to the words of the Whig. The Whig says: "The victory just achieved in Tennessee by liberal Republicans, with the aid of the great body of Conservatives, is claimed as a Democratic triumph by the Democratic newspapers. The proscriptive Radical journals interpret it in the same way. This is all nonsense. The ticket was not Democratic, and the policy it represented was liberal Republicanism. In like manner the assumption that it is an administration defeat is unfounded in fact."

The Republican Triumph in Virginia

Notwithstanding the desperate cries of the Democratic papers we have yet no resason to consider the election in Tennessee as aught but a Republican victory. The Radicals were beaten in Tennessee, but there are two extremes of Radicalism-Radical Republicans and Radical Democrats. The STAN-DARD is not Radical Republican, or Conservative Republican, it is content to be Republican, which means that it belongs to the only national and only liberal party in the country.

The STANDARD was the first paper in North Carolins-except the Old North State and Charlotte Democrat-to advocate Universal Suffrage and General Amoesty. It was the first Republican paper which announced itself opposed to proscriptive and radical measures. Therefore those papers which now declare themselves in favor of Universal Suffrage and General Amnesty are but following the lead of the STANDARD.

We are satisfied with the result of the election in Virginia, because it is the triumph of Republican principles,-not because we prefer WALKER as a man to Wells as a man. We are satisfied because the WALKER party, if true to its declarations, occupies the same ground as is occupied by Republican party of North Carolina.

We supported SENTER, and are satisfied with the result of the election in Tennessee for the same reasons as caused us to favorably regard the result of the Virginia

If the SENTER and WALKER parties are true to their declarations they now occupy the same ground as was occupied by the Republicans party of North Carolina two

True, the Republican party of North Carolina was then bitterly assailed for proclaiming Universal Suffrage. True it was cursed and anathematized for putting the ballot into the hands of the "nigger." This was the great and only charge against the Republican party-that by giving the ballot to the black man it sought to deprive the white man of his rights.

But now the victorious SENTER and WALKER parties proclaim Universal Suffrage and declare that the colored man is a citizen and entitled to the ballot, thus taking the same ground as was taken by the Republican party of North Carolina two years ago.

The Republican party has already declared itself in favor of General Amnesty. Then it is clear that the victorious parties in Tennessee and Virginia, if true to their own declarations, now occupy the same ground as does the Republican party of North Carolina. We have no disposition to causelessly doubt the sincerity of their professions. We are willing to take them at their word. So long as their actions are in accordance with their professions we shall believe them to be true. For these reasons we rejoice at the results in Virginia and Tennessee. We rejoice at the success of our own principles in those States. We rejoice because proscription

But the same reason which causes us to rejoice, prohibits the Democratic papers from sharing in our triumph. They went into the late presidential election with the motto "COLOR IS THE DIVIDING LINE IN POLITICS." Hence they cannot now rejoice in the triumph of parties proclaiming Universal suffrage.

They laid down their platform as being unalterably opposed to the right of the colored man to vote. They fought the campaign upon that doctrine. They were whipped upon that doctrine. They must abide by the results of that doctrine. If the Democratic party could have had its way there would not be a colored voter in North Carolina to-day! The colored people know this-they will never forget it. They will never forget that Democracy tried to make them slaves, and that the Republican party made them MEN and CITIZENS.

If the Democratic papers have repented of their wickedness and now believe in universal suffrage, well and good. But they cannot claim any share in its triumph, for they did all they could to defeat it. The triumph belongs to the Republican party, and to it alone.

Hence no Democrat can share in the triumph of SENTER and WALKER.

And now let the parties in Virginia and Tennessee be true to the promises they made the people of those States, and all will be well. With the triumph of true Republican principles will come that quiet so ardently desired, and so greatly needed, by the Southern people.

We rejoice in the prospect.

More Celestial Vanities. We are informed that a comet is visible in the Northern sky from about twelve o'clock until morning. We do not know this of our own knowledge, as we have not looked. We are aware, however that a comet is due about this time. It is said that this comet will approach the earth more nearly than has ever been done by any other. Furthermore, it is said that there is a great probability that this unwelcome stranger will come into collision. In view of the fact that nobody seems quite certain of the materials which compose comets, the possibility of its coming into collision with our globe is, to say the least, "demnition unpleasant." Some astronomers say that comets are composed of gas. It this hypothesis is true we are not afraid, for we have stood the Sentinel's gas so long that we know we can stand any other kind. If, however, the comet is made of solid material in a state of combustion, we don't like the idea of its running against the world. We wish that eclipses, comets, and other celestral vanities, would keep away and leave the world to it-self. We do not like such familiarity. es, comets, and other celestial vanities,

The Harvard crew win much commendation in London, though of course, says the N. Y. Tribune, they have not yet done their best. The Englishmen, while admitting that they are no contemptible antagonists. express little fear for the laurels of Oxford; and they treat our young men with such hearty hospitality that we gain confidence the race will be a fair one. Foul play, however, is only to be dreaded from the lower classes, with whom the crew have not yet been brought into contact.

High Taxes.

A great hue and cry is raised throughout the whole country in regard to the high taxes. A great deal of grumbling is heard everywhere, but especially in "Democratic" circles. They, the Democrats, (so-called) make, and cause to be made, pretty much all the noise which is heard on account of heavy taxation, and they are more responsible than any other class of men for the present state of things. Taxation is obliged to be heavy here for years to come. We have the old State debt to pay, interest and all. Would these grumblers have the State to repudiate this debt which was contracted mostly by themselves when they had the power? We have adopted a Constitution which every fair minded man will say is liberal in its provisions, that it is just such an instrument as will enable a people to become prosperous and happy. It requires a school system to be kept up four months each year, for all the children of the children of the State between the ages of 6 and 21 years. Can this be done without money? The rebels squandered the School Fund-now, another is to be raised, and by taxation. We must have a Penitentiary, which cannot be built for nothing. True, many of those who have heretofore been under the old regime, fed at the public cost, will now be put to work on the State prison, thus saving the people from the expense of keeping them as heretofore. Besides, if proper management is had, the State prison can be made to yield a revenue, but not for sometime to come.

Many counties of the State are deeply in debt .- many of these are old obligations contracted long before the Republican party had an existence in North Carolina. Would these croakers have the county debts wiped out? Do they actually want repudiation brought about? If so, why don't they say so at once? Debts can't be paid without money, and, whatever may become of individual obligations, State and county obligations have to be paid by taxation. Why didn't they think of these things in 1861, when they plunged the countryinto rebellion and war? They do not seem to have counted the cost. Now they are the most noisy against taxation. It has always been their policy to make high taxes their hobby, in order to gull the ignorant and ride into Great complaint is made on account of the large per diem of the last Legislature. True, we think it was too high; but why do the Conservatives howl so lustily over it, when the preceding Legislature, which was not Republican, drew but little less ? They got $6 per day, their presing officer $10, their clerks $10, (which is $3 a day more than was received by the clerks last winter.) Their milage was the same as that of the present Legislature. This too, be it remembered, when there was in existence, at the same time, a convention, the members of which drew each $6 a day. We are no apologist for high salaries, but let the people have the facts. Superior Court Judges get $2,500 a year, which being reduced to gold, makes about $1750, $200 less than Judges got before the war. But they cry out, "You have twelve Judges now, whereas we had only seven or eight then." True, but Judges now have more to do than formerly. The salaries of all the State officers, if reduced to gold, would not amount to much more than they did when the present croakers were in power.

Many say, this raidroad building at present is bad policy, very bad. Let us see. The Supreme Court has made the matter of making appropriations for railroads hereafter tolerably clear. What the Legislature aimed to do in appropriating money to the old projects was, to enable them to finish their work-work that was begun years ago. Would these would-be economists have these old roads remain in an unfinished condition? But they say, we are too poor, let us revive first. Do they not know that the time to have work done is when wages are low? Good railroad hands can be had for 50 cents per day and board. The country has many poor men in it who are willing and eager to work, they have no means of support but their labor. Then let the State finish its roads, and at the same time aid its citizens.

We like candor and if the people could but see and know the facts, as they exist, less of this grumbling would be heard.

More Atlantic Cables. It has been known for some time, says the New York Herald, that a grand telegraph enterprise was on foot-an enterprise which was chiefly American in its character, but which represented also a considerable amount of British capital, and which contemplated laying a telegraph cable along the coast of China. This is an initial step towards bringing Asia more directly within the range of the modern mercantile world. It is a preliminary to a grand Pacific cable which shall connect the United States with the great commercial centres of Japan, China and India. We have been glad to learn that Lord Clarendon has given instructions to the effect that the British fleet in Chinese waters shall co-operate with the Asiatic squadron of the United States in laying and protecting this cable. This action on the part of the British government is all the more praiseworthy that arrangements have been made to lay a cable between Suez and Bombay to connect with that of Malta and Alexandria. In such joint labors great nations do themselves honor. Another item of our latest news is to the effect that a French company has offered to construct a telegraph line from Lisbon and Gibraltar to England and America on a twenty years' subsidy. We wish success to all such enterprises. We cannot have too many cables. Whatever tends to annihilate distance and to facilitate interchange of ideas is a gain to humanity.

Receiving the cold shoulder from Rose. CRANS, the Ohio Democracy has been compelled to find a new candidate. This it has done in the person of the repudiator PEN-DLETON. How "Young Greenbacks," meets this sad fate is yet unknown, but he has accepted the empty honor of being the next man to be beaten by the Republicans of Ohio. It don't take much of a man for a Democratic candidate in Ohio, as he is only set up to be knocked down.

The Disbanded Democracy Pretend to be Republicans. The Tarboro' Southerner announces that it adopts the platform of universal suffrage and general amnesty. This is the platform of the Republican party of North Carolina.

But the Southerner says it is opposed to Gov. Holden and his party. Every true Republican in the State acknowledges Gov. HOLDEN as the leader of the party in this Without declaring allegiance to the true Republican party, the Southerner cannot use the name Republican, "which," it thinks, "may be more effective in its workings" than any other.

We say candidly that we do not believe in the purity of the sudden conversion of the Southerner. It is too sudden. It and others of the Democratic papers only demonstrate the truth of the adage "Rats desert : sinking ship."

The Democratic party is dying. So far as being able to contend against the Republicans is concerned, it is dead now.

The Democratic papers know this, and are leaving it to its fate. They wish to form a new party, with which they hope to be able to cope with the Republicans. Hence their cries for a new party.

The STANDARD told the people of this weeks ago. The Democratic papers denied it, and sought to deceive the people. The people can now see that the STANDARD told them the truth.

We now tell the people that a new effort to betray them is being made by their old enemics. The Democratic leaders, beaten as Democrats, are trying to play the same old game under a different name. No matter what the new fusion is called it will consist mainly of the same treacherous sham-Democracy that the people of North Carolina have despised, and which the Republican party has so unmercifully beaten.

The unjust treatment of the Whig element of the late sham-Democracy did much to occasion its disruption. The old Whies could not endure the insolence of their old foes, and left the party in disgust. Many of them are now Republicans, and nearly all of them soon will be.

The so-called "new movement" has no terrors for us, for it will never be a success. All the petty demagogues in the State cannot form a new party. They have reckoned without their host. Parties are not formed by editors nor by mere wire-pullers. They are formed only from great national causes, and by the PEO-PLE. Prominent men may take advantage of the popular feeling to put themselves in the van of a new popular movement. But they simply join the new party, they do not

This our Democratic friends do not seem to understand, or have forgotten in their greed for office. We shall watch their movements with a great deal of amusement. They have plenty of time to perfect their new organization-some three years and a half. This will give them an ample opportunity for reflection. We hope that their ragged cern gets fully organized.

In the meantime the Republican party will pursue the even tenor of its way, daily receiving additions from best portions of the disban led Democracy. It is not the Rudical Republican party. It is not the Conservative Republican party. It is the REPUBLICAN party, and its motto is, now as before, Universal Suffrage and General Amnesty.

If the disbanded Democracy wish to to adopt Universal Suffrage and General Amnesty they can do so, but if they do they will be taking it at second hand, and the people will not believe the sincerity of their professions until they practice what they

Let the disbanded Democracy twist and squirm, and seek a new alias. There is but one National party-the REPUBLICAN. The people know this and will not suffer themselves to be deceived by the transparent trickery of the played-out Democracy.

Our Debt-the Importance of its Speedy Payment.

We have from the first favored the policy of Secretary Bourwell, because it not only lessened the principal, but saved the payment of a large interest in gold. We have constantly held that his policy alone could benefit the finances of the country. And now we are supported in our arguments by the N. Y. Mercantile Journal, a paper which is high authority upon such matters. The Journal savs:

A cotemporary says, that "Great Britain owes s much as we do." This statement may, to a superficial thinker, appear to be correct. It is, nevertheless, very seriously erroneous. To make the truth of the matter stand out in bold relief, we ask the consideration of a few facts.

The principal of the debt of Great Britain is really larger than that of the United States. But the principal of any debt of long standing is not its most embarrassing feature. It is in the payment of interest that the burden lies. Great Britain has promised to pay interest on her debt at the rate of three per cent, but has not made any promise whatever to pay the principal The United States has promised to pay interest at the rate of six per cent. in gold on the larger portion of her debt, and it is through the paying of exorbitant interest that we shall suffer.

If it were agreed that the principal of both debts should remain unpaid for two centuries, without any change in the current rate of interest, we might with propriety say that the debt of the United States is not only ten times, but one hundred and many more times larger than the debt of Great Britain

In order to show the extraordinary power of money to accumulate by interest; to demonstrate the correctness of the foregoing statement, and to impress upon the minds of all, the great importance of paying the national debt at the earliest possible moment, we submit the following

One thousand dollars, with (simple) interest collected annually, and re-invested, would, in one hundred years, amount to the following sums respectively:

At three (3) per cent..... $ 45,33 07 Six per cent, gold is equal to eight and fourenths per cent. in currency, when gold is 40 per

The above figures indicate the result of the the accumulation of money by interest for one hundred years only. Where is the man who can comprehend the amount that would be reached in two hundred years? We don't know him.

Better Than Before.

The Sentinel comforts itself with the thought that "Gov. HOLDEN's friends are falling away from him." The Sentinel never made a greater mistake in its life, and of late it has been famous for its mistakes. Gov. Holden's friends still support him, for he has proven himself worthy the support of every good man in the State. Some professed friends may have "fallen away," but that is but the better for Gov. HOLDEN and the Republican party. A dozen or so of hypocrites have left the Republican party, and the party is glad of it.

The Sentinel quotes an article, if such nonsense can be called an article, from the New Berne Times, assailing Gov. Holden and the STANDARD, and credits it to the Radical organ in that section of the State. The Times has gone over to the Radical Democracy, and therefore may be the Radical organ of Craven. But we are glad to say it is not a Republican paper.

That the men who control it are not friendly to Governor Holden is perfectly true. Speculators are not apt to be friendly to the man who crushes their plans for robbing the people. We can well believe that a certain clique in New Berne is not friendly," to Governor Holden. But they are powerless for harm. The "bolters," as the Sentinel appropriately styles them, have unmasked their batteries too soon to be able to make a decent fight. They are wholly unsupported, and are whipped even before the fight begins. They will receive the fate traitors should receive.

From Gen. Dockery and Mr. SINCLAIR We have heard nothing. We do not know, or believe, that the report concerning them is true. They should either contradict it or

As to the West it is most faithful to Gov. Holden. It remembers the past, when Gov. Holden, was the only man who stood up squarely and tairly in favor of the West. It has never torgotten that, and never will. Nor does the West forget that Governor

Holden has incurred the opposition of Eastern speculators and land gamblers because of his maintenance of the claims of

Nor is it at all probable that Judge Lo-GAN and Col. HARRIS, both small men, can do anything to injure Gov. HOLDEN with the Western people. The West remembers with indignation, that the course of Judge Logan and Col. HARRIS was calculated and intended to deprive the West of its rights, and to give everything into the hands of the

It remembers that Gov. HOLDEN stood up for the claims of the West, and gave it a preponderance in the Board of Directors of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad Company. It remembers that it is for this action upon his part that Gov. HoL-DEN is now assailed by disappointed speculators and land-sharks. Rid of such men, the Republican party and Gov. Holden will be stronger than ever before.-These men have ever been a clog upon it, and the actions of some of the whole party. Therefore we are glad to see them go. It would have been better for the party if they had gone long ago. It would have been still better if they had never fastened themselves upon Republican They have been the bummers which have skulked in the route of our army of progress, shirking every fight, and after the close of the battle committed indignities upon the wounded. As the "skulkers" and "stragglers" are regarded by the truly brave soldiers, so have these skulkers and parasites been regarded by the good men of the Republican party. We are glad to be well rid of them. There are a few more who belong to the same category. We have not a word to sav against their going too. We would be the last in the world to discourage them in such

The Republican party, purged of these bad men, will be the stronger and better. We do not seek to drive out any man, but there are men whom we should not be at all sorry to see go out of their own accord. We do not doubt that the sympathies of the Sentinel are in favor of the "bolters." "Birds of a feather flock together." But we will inform it, and the bolters, that Gov. HOLDEN is stronger to-day than he ever was.

Change your Partners!

According to the Tarboro' Southerner and New Berne Times things political are to

One change in the political quadrille has already been gone through with. The New Berne Times now wishes to join the Democracy.

The Tarboro' Southerner reproaches us with being a dog in the manger because we don't believe in its sincerity when it wants to join the Liberal Republican party. It charges us with doubting its truth and sin-

The charge is true. We do doubt it

But the fiddler of the Wilmington Star says change partners.

We are to drop the Times and receive the Southerner. We don't care which it is. Both are scaly specimens. Neither is worth a continental. It's like swapping a lousy calf for a lousy cow.

If the Journal of Commerce can stand the Times we are willing to try the Southerner. C-h-a-n-g-e p-a-r-t-ners! Swing corners! Balance all! Go it you fools and cripples! The Sentinel will come around for tickets.

Death of Judge Osborne. We regret to be obliged to announce the death of Hon. JAMES W. OSBORNE of Charlotte. He died at his home at 11 A. M. Wednesday in the fifty-ninth year of his age. He had been dangerously ill for several weeks and his death was not wholly unexpected. We knew Judge OSBORNE well, and although differing politically, always held the most friendly relations with him. He was a fine specimen of a gentleman of the old school and was distinguished for his urbanity. As a man he was true talented, and good, and he dies regretted

North Carolina Politics. We have been much pleased at the progress which liberal sentiments is making in our sister State of North Carolina since the Virginia and Tennessee elections. So far as we can judge from the altered tone of the press on both side it seems to be a race between the Radical and Democratic parties, (if that is the classification,) which shall get upon the platform first. The Raleigh Standard, (Holden's paper) approved of Walker's election and supported Senter, and, wonderful to relate! took open ground against proscription; and lately the Tarboro' Southern er, Wilmington Journal and Star, backed by the Weldon News and Henderson Index, have come out in favor of universal suffrage and universal amnesty-equality of civil rights for all citizens. The people of North Carolina will find that Conservative Republicanism at the South is the sacrifice of old prejudices on the alter of rational union and progress. It is in vain for them to fight proscriptive Radicalism while they indulge in proscriptive negroism. That won't do, with the fifteenth amendment almost adopted and about to become the settled policy of the country. Concede to the negro all the rights which Congress has conferred upon him, and you will kill the Radical party with a surfeit. This sword will cut all the hard knots with which Radicalism would the up the South .- Norfolk Day Book. It is evident that the Day Book does not understand North Carolina politics, nor yet their relation to the politics of its own

There is no race in which Republican papers-however it may be with Radical and Democratic papers-try to get upon any disputed ground. The Republican papers of North Carolina stand now where they have stood for two long years-upon the platform of universal suffrage and general

Two years ago there was not a single Democratic paper in North Carolina which did not oppose universal suffrage. Therefore it is plain that those papers which now claim to be in favor of universal suffrage are following the lead of the STANDARD, and are coming to us.

The Day Book's advice is good. We will kill radicalism in this State, be it of which side it may. Then the Day Book can rejoice with us and enter into our excessive joy. The sword" which is "to cut all the hard knots" is being sharpened, and will soon do

Some one of the many editors of the Sentinel is in doubt as to General GRANT's policy. He declares himself to be anxious to support the policy of General GRANT, and affects to be grieved because he cannot be given some sign by which to guide his course. He is probably one of that evil generation, mentioned in the Bible, who seek after signs, and to whom the Bible further adds no sign shall be given save the sign of the prophet Jonan. The whale was Jonan's sign. Therefore, we think the Democracy has already got its sign, for it is the worst schaled party ever known.

The Sentinel also asks us a few little questions, which we are the more ready to answer on account of the unusually good humored manner in which they are put.

1. We think it will "do" to stick to SENthe professions made by them during the campaign. They professed their loyalty to the Government, and their devotion to the principles of universal suffrage and general amnesty. Those who are sincere in their maintainance of these principles it will do to stick to.

2. We are for the Republican party in Mississippi, and have nothing to do with Radicals or Liberals. No more liberal principles can be found than those advocated by the Republican party. It long ago proclaimed Universal Suffrage and General Amnesty, and no party has advanced or can advance a more liberal platform. Any man who supports this, the Republican platform, and whose loyalty is proven, we are ready and willing to support, with only one reservation -that his party, and the officers chosen by his party, shall be uncompromisingly loval to the government. We can and will support no man who is an enemy to the government.

Therefore we prefer to see the parties in Mississippi show their hands before we declare for any candidate. Otherwise we might do as the Sentinel and other Democratic papers did after the Virginia election -hurrah for the wrong man! It was extremely mortifying to the Democratic papers, after hurrahing themselves hoarse for the election of WALKER, to be told by the WALKER papers to shut up, and that the election of WALKER was a Republican victory. When we see who is supported by the best and most loyal men in Mississippi we will declare who we will support.

3. We have before announced that we were in favor of the removal of the disabilities of every man who wished it. We have not advocated the passage of an act removing disabilities because Congress has declared its willingness to remove the disabilities of any man who asks it to do so. Therefore such a act is not necessary. We have, however, no objections to the passage of such an act, the less so, as it would enfranchise thousands of white Republican. Therefore we think it is 'according to the policy" to advocate the removal of disabilities.

Is the Sentinel satisfied ?

When the Democrats of Ohio, says the New York Tribune, astonished themselves and the country by the nomination of Gen. Rosecrans as their candidate for Governor. we spoke of it as a measure of their necessities. They have now filled the vacancy caused by Gen. Rosecrans's refusal to serve by the nomination of Mr. Geo. H. Pendleton. This seems to us not so much a measure of their necessity as of their desperation It a confession of the gravest possible danger; an ordering up of the last reserves, and a change of front in the face of the enemy. How the same party which was ready to support Gen. Rosecrans as a war candidate is now to be brought about-face to the support of a peace man so ultra as Mr. Pendleton, is one of those curiosities of Democracy which age cannot wither and whose infinite variety custom cannot sate.

The Tampa (Florida) Peninsula says There will be more cotton raised in this section this year than has ever before been made. Persons who have planted the Mexican cotton say that it produces more and does better here than the Sea Island."

Another Political Bat. The New Berne Times has never been considered a Republican paper since it came under its present management. The first index to the opinions of its owners was the changing of its title from the New Berns Republican to the New Berne Times. Never during its subsequent career has it been a Republican paper. It has made: faint profession of faith- just enough in fee to enable its publisher to keep his positie as postmaster of New Berne.

It now ceases to claim that it is a Repub. lican paper. It denounces Gov. Holden the acknowledged head of the party in the State, and joins with the Democratic pres in assailing the Republican party.

The charge of the Times amounts nothing, as it has no influence in the city in which it is published, and has no circulation outside of it. We are glad that it has shown its hand. We like an open enemy better than a treacherous friend.

It, and those connected with it, he never done the Republican party any ser. vice, but have been mere parasites. We are glad to be rid of it. It now remains to be seen whether the Journal of Commerce, u the Democrat representative of Craves, will be glad to receive it. Judging from the lor opinion it has ever entertained of the Tine concern, not merely politically, but pence ally, we are afraid that the new convert will not be well received. It is another political

The Bridgeport, Conn., Standard, spent. ing of the personal assaults upon the President

"Is it possible that the enemies Administration tion have no better arguments to use, no better objections to urge than such as these! is they reduced to such straits that they much knowledge their weakness in such a manne And do they earnestly believe that they can a gust anybody with the Administration by simp making themselves disgusting? Andrew Job son goes up and down the country, blackgund ing everybody, likening himself to the Saviore munkind and his enemies to the Jews, laddy ing in the most intemperate and unjustific ble abuse of individual men and messes and what are the comments of these same journals upon his performance? "Great man," yells one. "Stannch defender of the Constitution," squeals another. "Sound expenent of constitutional law," pipes a third, and so on, till they have run through the varion changes on that topic, and have exhausted them. selves in praising a man whom they have within few years cursed and decried with all the bil lingsgate that they use now by implication, but dare not use openly, against President Gunt. If they are satisfied, we don't know as we ough to complain, when they are thus so badly injuing their own cause. Nevertheless, there neve was a greater mistake made by any party that being made by the Democratic party press day in endeavoring to decry the President personal and private grounds. It will not

Amusing Mistake.

A few days ago an English gentleman i Paris received from a friend as a present the leg of a young bear shot in the Pyrenne and which is said, when salted, to be st perior to the finest Yorkshire hams. Owing however, to the heat of the weather, the leg that the recipient ordered it to be throw into the river. This was done, and short after the basket containing it was fished at St. Cloud with the address still legible the label. On its being conveyed to the police office, the doctor attached to that de partment declared it to be the right tleg of a human being. Naturally enough the commissaire sallied forth with an escort of gendarmes, and proceeded to the address affine on the basket, in order to arrest the person to whom so suspicious a parcel was consigned. Two persons connected with the rail way were also arrested as accomplices. 0 course an explanation ensued, and further inquiry established the innocence of all the Remarkable Railroad Escapes. There was a narrow escape from a horrible accident at the crossing of the Camda and Atlantic and Camden and Amboy rosa at Camden one day last week. As a larg the crossing the flagman signalled that was right, and the heavily loaded make the total was right, and the heavily loaded makept on. When it was near the crossing special train on the Amboy road came sight around the curve, approaching a high speed. The flagman instantly described the speed of the speed. played the red flag, but neither train coll stop. Most fortunately one of the brakess on the excursion train had the remarking presence of mind to cut the train and p the brakes down on the cars cut off, who so slowed them that a gap in the train so formed just at the crossing, and the Ambi train dashed through, and no injury so done. But for this the loss of life and many ling of bodies that must have occi would have been fearful beyond descrip parties concerned.

At Clinton, Ky., on Monday last, Rober Hales came near shooting four men in the attempt to kill Wm. Clark. Clark had away with Hales' sister.

tion. There were two thousand persons the excursion train.

It is expected that Admiral Hoff's reps will show that the recent execution of its Americans in Cuba was little better the cold blooded murder.

The Queen's message to the British Park ament, Wednesday, stated that negotiation between England and the United States is been suspended by mutual consent. Business at the Springfield Armor Massachusetts, is lively again. Wask a the new breech loaders is now being peak ahead, and the number of workmen hasker increased to five hundred. A law has been enacted in England sh secures to a married woman her own property, but makes her liable to the parish for the maintenance of her husband, as the latter is liable for the support of the wife.

Hon. J. M. Ashley, Governor of Mo was on the 4th inst., at Corinne, Unit. City of canvass tents, three months old. The Utah Daily Reporter, printed in a tent.

The London Athenaum was recei fiscated in France, because of the appe ance in its columns of an adverse or of a very silly book which an Englis gyman had dedicated to the glory o leon III. It is reported from Jackson, the

Yerger was remanded to the military ties by Judge Hill, the irons he daily since put under arrest, were and he is kept under strong guard vi

J. W. Griffith, of Clarksville, M. raised fifty-three bushels of "Early rich" potatoes from one bushel plan He took from one hill alone sixty-nige able potatoes.